Dear - Friend

I am slow answering your letter I received from you, and was very glad to hear from you. Mrs. Roberts, Marie Maphet is here in Cincinnati in Hospital has had her throat crapted on and will soon able to taken to her grandmother she dont have nothing to do with me since I told her and Clarence what to do. She told her grandmother Clarence Roberts told her he was going away and never show his face around this part of the state that every one could go to hell for him, She said "she has had no word of any kind from."

him. Marie is shurely a nervous wreck now, and she been awful thick the last two weeks.

Clarence's Kato license No are E. 22. 112 and in his own name which he still owed for the car. He left Cincinnati on ~~June~~ <sup>July</sup> 30-1928 and was going South what he always was talking about a job. none of the men here in seen him for three weeks.

Something was worrying Clarence when he left my house ~~July~~ <sup>June</sup> 30. and said he was going so far every one go too hell he was done with people here in Cin. You know he hated them and I because I told him right to his face he was not doing

Mrs Roberts their is only one letter here for Clarence and that the one you wrote him. In Marie letter box she has his sister, and another address they always burned their letter up after they got done <sup>reading</sup> them because they were afraid I <sup>was</sup> going to get wise.

Clarence shurely done a dirty trick when I took Kenneth to Hospital to be taken care of, he ran around for three days then come back and said he was going to see him and he did not.

Clarence's days are shurely coming you know ever dog has his days you know if a man cannot live with his first wife he'll do the same with the second wife.

me
cousins
If I find any
is or see him
it's me I you

I know with no money
week

out where
let you know
to Cincinnati
old leg

your
I hope this
the best
piper for you to raise for

but I don't husband
and children
if I can

no trouble
I feel sorry
and help

remain Yours True
Mrs Walter Maphet.

I know what it means having no money coming in each week.

If I find anything out where he is or see him I'll let you know. It at once. If you come to Cincinnati:

happier for you is to raise family but I don't have no trouble with my husband. I feel sorry for you and children and help anyway I can.

remain - yours Truly

Mrs. Walter Mephet.
